

Another Record Broken at the Tullyear Production Sale

Well what an end to the Charollais Female Sales, another record broken at the Tullyear Production Sale with the guest Consignment of ewe lambs from the Springhill Flock of Graham Foster achieving a top of 8,100gns. Lot 100, Springhill "What A Beauty" an outstanding ET daughter of Springhill Vodka selling to the Boyo Flock of David Roberts, Shropshire, a Breed Record for a ewe Lamb. Two ET sisters Lot 101 selling to Raymond Douglas, Monaghan for 1,800gns and Lot 104 selling to the Shanaghoo Flock of James Walsh, Cork for 3,600gns. Lot 46 a Springhill Viper daughter sold to Donegal for 1,700gns, another 2 Vodka daughters, Lot 47 selling to Simon Hunter, Yorkshire for 1,500gns and to David Cromie, Rathfriland for 1,400gns. Fourteen Ewe lambs averaging 1,687gns

The current trend of on-line bidding proved very successful with forty six sheep being exported to UK and Southern Ireland.

The Dalby Tarquin daughters in the Tullyear pens caught the eye of several breeders with Tullyear Viola, Lot 24 being the favourite selling at 3,800gns to the Martin Family Enniskillen.

Top Price of the Loanhead Topgun daughters was lot 36, a big powerful ewe selling to Richard and Harry Powell for 2,000gns.

Lot 20, a big ended smart Dalby Tarquin daughter was knocked down to Jim and Joseph Quail for 1,550gns.

Lot 44 was the choice of Cork Breeder, Eddie Buckley, purchasing this flashy Topgun daughter for 1,500gns. Another Topgun daughter, Lot 72, sold to J Foster for 1,350gns.

Thomas McCormack, Strokestown went to 1,340gns to purchase lot 99, a Loanhead Topgun daughter with great maternal bloodlines and 1,080gns for a Dalby Tarquin daughter.

Armagh Breeder Glenn Baird paid out 1,200gns for a big powerful Topgun daughter in-lamb to Logie Durno Van The Man.

A big thank you to Richard Powell of the Iskeymeadow who purchased lot 88, Tullyear Valentine, money from which is going to Children's Heartbeat Trust.

Our Stock Ram Loanhead Topgun generated a lot of interest on the day selling for 2,050gns to a consortium of Southern Breeders.

We are once again very grateful for all the support we receive and wish everyone well with their new purchases. A big thank you to Alfie Shaw for the super pre-sale pictures and all the staff at Beatties for their help. Also Frazer Tweed for his professional services in organising the Export Licenses and the Charollais Office staff for sorting the catalogue. Seamus McDonald for transporting the sheep.
