Foreword

We are proud to offer for sale today what we think is a great batch of females, these gimmers make up the majority of our 2025 crop of shearling ewes with only a very select few being retained. This will offer any prospective buyers the opportunity to buy from the heart of the flock with all the best lines being represented. There are numerous sheep amongst them which are easily capable of showing or indeed flushing for the pedigree job.

We made the decision to sell them at this time of the year for a couple of reasons. Firstly to avoid potential restrictions with Bluetongue, all gimmers have been vaccinated prior to sale and should be free to travel anywhere on Mainland UK. The other reason being that with the sheep being sold free from the ram it offers buyers the flexibility to tup at a time that suits or indeed to use the females for crossbred ram production.

We have enjoyed great success over recent years with the Charollais flock in both the Show and Sale ring, in 2024 we picked up 5 firsts at the Highland with the senior ewe going on to be breed and Reserve Interbreed Champion. The Royal Welsh was also a great week with the same ewe picking up breed Champion and standing second Reserve in the Interbreed. Followed by our two more local shows where we won Interbreed Champion at Black Isle with a gimmer and Champion of Champions at Turriff with the ewe.

Sales wise we enjoyed a Successful day at Carlisle Supreme winning Overall Champion with a shearling ram and selling to a top of 5000gns for ram lambs followed by another Champion ticket at Worcester with the shearling ram which went on to top the sale at 6200gns. Our final sale of the year was Kelso where we completed the hat-trick winning red white and blue with another shearling ram. In total we sold 81 Charollais rams to average out at £1371.

It has also been very rewarding to see already this year a number of Logie Durno bred sheep or progeny of sheep we have sold out winning shows and we are confident that the females offered today should go on and provide similar success in their new homes.

If anyone would like any additional information or discuss anything prior to Sale please do not hesitate to get in touch.
